

Dylan Arzoni

dylanarzoni@gwu.edu | +1 (443) 660-6082 | @dylanarzoni
www.linkedin.com/in/dylanarzoni

Highly motivated British student-athlete, with a strong passion for news and current affairs, studying International Affairs, Journalism and French at The George Washington University in Washington, DC – on track to graduate in May 2022. I bring valuable cross-cultural knowledge and skills as well as presenting and interviewing experience.

Experience

BBC News 2022-present Intern BBC World News	Washington, D.C.
---	------------------

EDUCATION

The George Washington University 2018-present Bachelor of Arts in International Affairs, Int'l Politics & Europe Minors in Journalism & French Language Team Captain GWU Swim Team 2020-present; NCAA Division 1 Dean's List Recognition at GWU Elliott School of International Affairs	Washington, D.C.
--	------------------

NOTABLE ACHIEVEMENTS

-
- Moderated a one-on-one, on-stage 'Conversation with Katie Ledecy', as part of GWU's Bicentennial Weekend Events Programme. I conducted research and formulated questions to create an interesting interview with wide-ranging and flowing conversation in front of a live audience of approx. 1,500 (2021)
 - Hosted the GW Athletics Georgey Awards, including writing the script for the show, conducting on-camera interviews of award nominees on the red carpet, filming and writing a skit for the show opener and hosting the awards show on-camera for a live Zoom broadcast (2021)
 - Two-time recipient of the Annual Excellence in Leadership Award, Men's Swimming & Diving Team at The George Washington University (2020, 2021)
 - Interviewed Michael Curtis (Deputy Ambassador E.U. to U.S.) on Post-Brexit Europe, before leading a debate with Mr. Curtis, members of Irish delegation in the US and members of the Peterson Institute and the Atlantic Council Think Tanks, The George Washington University (2020)
 - Competed at a national level in swimming at the British & American Jr National Champs (2011-2018)
 - Invited by Michael Phelps' Team U.S.A. Olympic swimming coach, Bob Bowman, to train with the high-performance team at North Baltimore Aquatic Club, Baltimore, U.S.A. (2013-2016)

SKILLS

-
- Valuable cross-cultural knowledge and experience of society and politics of the U.K. and the U.S.A.
 - Extensive knowledge of U.K. & U.S. news media and current affairs
 - Experience in interviewing (inc. research), film editing, camera & mic set-up, data journalism
 - Working proficiency in the French language
 - Excellent time management skills and an ability to work to deadlines under pressure, stemming from balancing 20 hours per week of athletics training with a full-time undergraduate academic schedule